

BOARD OF DIRECTORS CHARTER

1 STATEMENT OF POLICY

The Board of Directors of Cogeco Cable Inc. (the "Corporation") is elected by the Corporation's shareholders to supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation pursuant to the powers vested in its articles and by-laws, and in accordance with the obligations under public and private law.

The prime responsibility of the Board is to preserve and enhance the viability of the Corporation and to ensure that it is managed in the best interests of the Corporation with due regard for the interests of its shareholders generally and other stakeholders.

2 COMPOSITION, QUALIFICATION AND ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD

2.1 Selection of Members

The Corporate Governance Committee of the Board maintains an overview of the desired size and composition of the Board, the need for recruitment and the expected experience of the new candidates. It also advises the Board on the competencies and skills that the Board as a whole, and individual directors, should possess in the context of the Corporation's business and affairs and determines the competencies, skills and qualities the Human Resources Committee should seek in candidates as directors.

Unless determined otherwise by the Board, when a director is being recruited, an ad hoc committee composed of the Board Chair, the Chairs of the Human Resources and Corporate Governance Committees and the President and CEO of the Corporation, initiate the process by seeking input and suggestions, including from directors and outside consultants and in doing so, such committee takes into account the qualities or experience that a candidate should possess and that may include such considerations as educational background, any special training of relevance, business experience in or outside the cable, telecommunication and media sectors, national or international exposure, directorial experience, diversity and other factors. Against that backdrop, the ad hoc committee brings the proposed candidate forward to the Human Resources Committee and the Corporate Governance Committee for assessment, prior to his or her submission to the Board. The Board approves the final choice of candidates for nomination and proposed election by the shareholders.

All new directors are briefed on the Corporation by the Board Chair and management on the Corporation's structure, financial situation, regulatory environment and other aspects of its business. They are also provided with the Board Charter, Individual Director Mandate, Cogeco Group Code of Ethics and other key mandates and policies.

2.2 Membership Criteria

Board members must have the requisite qualifications under the law and the by-laws of the Corporation. They must have an appropriate mix of skills, knowledge and experience in business and an understanding of the industry segments in which the Corporation operates or commit to acquire such an understanding. Directors selected should be able to devote the requisite time for all the Board's business. The directors of the Corporation are required to act with prudence and diligence, honesty and loyalty to the Corporation and with due regard to the interest of its shareholders and other stakeholders.

2.3 Independent Directors

A majority of the Board shall be composed of directors who are independent, as such term is defined according to applicable securities laws and regulations.

2.4 Board Chair

The Board shall appoint its Chair and Vice-Chair (if one is to be appointed) from among the Corporation's directors. The Board Chair will generally be an independent director. Should the Chair for any reason be a director who is an executive of the Corporation, the Board shall also appoint a lead director from among the independent directors to chair the Board at all meetings where such executive is absent and to assume other appropriate functions.

2.5 Retirement Age

Directors are no longer required to retire at a mandatory age as this could have the effect of forcing directors off the Board who have gained a deep knowledge of the Corporation's business and who are making a valuable contribution. At the same time it is recognized that there is value in a measure of turnover of Board membership to provide fresh approaches and new skills and knowledge. The membership on the Board is, accordingly, reviewed annually to consider its overall composition and effectiveness and to obtain an optimal balance of directors to ensure appropriate continuity.

2.6 Term of Directors

The directors are elected by the shareholders at every annual meeting except where the Board appoints a director to fill a vacancy until the next annual meeting. The term of office of each director shall expire at the next annual meeting of the Corporation, or upon the election of a successor.

2.7 Meeting Records

Minutes shall be kept of meetings of the Board and its Committees and shall be available to all directors.

3 MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

3.1 Board Agenda

The Board Chair, in consultation with the appropriate members of management, develops the agenda for Board meetings.

3.2 Board Material Distribution

Financial and other information that is important to the understanding of agenda items are distributed to directors in advance of the Board meeting to facilitate directors' preparation for meetings.

3.3 Board Meeting Frequency and Schedule

In order to carry out its mandate, the Board holds regular meetings on a quarterly basis and additional meetings to consider particular issues or strategic planning or conduct specific reviews whenever appropriate.

3.4 Attendance

Directors are expected, subject to scheduling conflicts, to attend all Board meetings in person, to the extent feasible (other than conference call meetings) and a record of attendance is kept.

3.5 Responsibilities and Duties

Directors are expected to carry out their oversight responsibilities and specific duties in accordance with the Individual Director Mandate.

3.6 Management at Meetings

The Board of Directors invites members of management to attend part of Board meetings to make presentations to allow directors to gain additional understanding and insight into the Corporation's businesses.

3.7 In camera Sessions

The Board meets in camera at each of its meetings without any member of management present to ensure free and open discussion among the independent directors, unless waived at a particular meeting by the independent directors.

4 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

In addition to its statutory responsibilities, the Board has the following duties and responsibilities:

- (a) ensuring that the Corporation is operated so as to preserve its financial integrity and in accordance with policies approved by the Board;

 - (r) evaluating, through the Human Resources Committee, the compensation and performance of senior executives in line with corporate policies in effect and stated budget and other objectives and approving their compensation after giving consideration to the recommendations of the Human Resources Committee;
 - (s) selecting nominees for election as directors;
 - (t) working to ensure that new directors are provided with adequate education and orientation opportunities, understand the role of the Board and its Committees, the expectations of time and contribution from an individual director and gain a general understanding of the Corporation's business;
 - (u) provide continuing education opportunities for directors to ensure their knowledge of the Corporation's business stays current and to maintain or enhance their directorial skills;
 - (v) selecting the Board Chair and developing his or her position description;
 - (w) appointing the officers of the Corporation;
 - (x) overseeing financial reporting and disclosure of the Corporation to obtain reasonable assurance that:
 - (i) the Corporation complies with all applicable laws, regulations, rules, policies and other requirements of governments, regulatory agencies and stock exchanges relating to financial reporting and disclosure;
 - (ii) the accounting policies and practices, significant judgments and disclosures which underlie or are incorporated in the Corporation's financial statements are the most appropriate in the prevailing circumstances;
 - (iii) the Corporation's quarterly and annual financial statements are accurate and present fairly the Corporation's financial position and financial performance in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS");
 - (iv) there is an effective system of internal controls; and
 - (v) appropriate information including Management's Discussion and Analysis, concerning the financial position and performance of the Corporation is disseminated to the public in a timely manner.

- (cc) appointing the members of the Committees, designating for each Committee one of the members as Chair and developing a position description for each Chair.

5 BOARD COMMITTEES

5.1 Number, Structure and Jurisdiction of Committees

The Board is responsible for the establishment of all Board Committees, the appointment of members on such Committees, their qualification, compensation and their good standing. The Board has established four standing Committees which are: the Audit, the Corporate Governance, the Human Resources and the Strategic Opportunities Committees, and delegates certain of its duties and responsibilities to them. Other Committees or sub Committees may be established on an ad hoc basis from time to time by Board resolution to deal with particular matters.

5.2 Independent Committee Members

Members of the Audit, the Human Resources and the Corporate Governance Committees must be comprised of members who are independent as defined according to applicable securities laws and regulations.

5.3 Committees Report to Board

Each Committee generally reports to the Board after each Committee meeting.

6 ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS

6.1 Compensation

The Human Resources Committee of the Board regularly reviews and makes recommendations on senior executive compensation as well as that for the directors, Board Chair and Committee Chairs and administers stock option, incentive and deferred share and other compensation plans. Any proposed change to such compensation must be approved by the Board.

6.2 Part of Directors Fees Paid in Deferred Share Units

In order to encourage alignment of the interests of directors with those of the shareholders, directors have the opportunity to receive all or a portion of their retainer in the form of deferred share units.

6.3 Board Confidentiality

Directors will maintain the absolute confidentiality of the deliberations and decisions of the Board of Directors and information received at meetings, except as may be specified by the Board Chair or if the information is publicly disclosed by the Corporation.

6.4 Reference materials

Reference materials that include, among other things, the Corporation's articles, by-laws, principal plans or policies, mandates and Code of Ethics are posted on the electronic portal of the Corporation and updated as necessary.

7 RESOURCES AND AUTHORITY OF THE BOARD

The Board shall have the resources and authority appropriate to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including the authority to retain counsel or other experts, as it deems appropriate, without seeking approval of management.
