

COGECO CONNEXION ANNOUNCES THE ACQUISITION OF BRIAND & MOREAU CABLE INC.

Montreal, March 1st, 2017 – Cogeco Connexion is proud to announce the acquisition of the operations of Briand et Moreau Câble Inc., the telecommunication firm serving the Gaspé Peninsula, has now been completed.

With this transaction, Cogeco Connexion continues to invest in the Greater Gaspé region and becomes the new Internet and television service provider to more than 2,500 residents of Grande-Rivière.

These residents can now enjoy the full range of Cogeco services, including access to a sounder, more reliable Internet network as well as a more complete and flexible television offering. They can also choose to subscribe to TiVo™ service, a multi-TV recorder making it possible to record up to six HD programs simultaneously, and view its contents online with direct access to Netflix, YouTube and Facebook.

“Extending our network and allowing more consumers to benefit from better connectivity is one of our key business priorities,” stated Ken Smithard, President of Cogeco Connexion. “We are pleased to count the residents of Grande-Rivière among our clients, and to offer them flexible and efficient services delivering a peerless entertainment experience.”

Community involvement and award-winning customer service

This announcement provided Cogeco Connexion with the opportunity to express its intent to become involved in the community of Grande-Rivière, offering it the level of customer service that has earned the company recognition from the Service Quality Measurement Group (SQM), which awarded it North American Contact Center Industry Awards (North American call centre awards) 8 times over the past 10 years.

“Cogeco has now been active in Quebec regions for sixty years and we are proud of expanding our presence and increasing our commitment in the Gaspé Peninsula, a market of considerable importance to our company,” noted Johanne Hinse, Vice President, Sales, Consumer Market and Community Relations with Cogeco Connexion.

“Being at the service of the communities we serve is part of our fundamental values and our unwavering commitment to our customers is what sets us apart from our competitors. We are determined to be a local presence involved with the residents of Grande-Rivière as well as a provider of competent and accessible services,” added Ms. Hinse.
