AND NOTING that all the other parties appearing on the application have been given notice of the applicants' motion and that none of the Third Party Respondents have advised the Court that it opposes the motion or intends to make submissions;

AND NOTING that the applicants advised, in their written representations, that they do not presently propose to extend the two-year period in paragraph 25 of the Judgment;

AND CONSIDERING the requirements for the amendment of Schedule 1 as contemplated by the contents of the Court's Judgment and Reasons dated July 9, 2024, and subsection 39.1(1) of the Copyright Act, RSC, 1985, c C-42;
