

COGECO CONNEXION INC.
Specific Terms and Conditions – Business Solutions
Schedule – Online Productivity Tools
Last revision: April 13, 2020

1. Supplier Products. Cogeco provides online productivity tools to business customers that are owned by suppliers such as, without limitation, Google Inc., Microsoft Corporation, Mozy International Limited, FSecure Inc., Tucows Inc., and Mural Consulting Corporation (the “Supplier Products”).
2. Supplier Product License. Cogeco only provides third party software to Customer where Cogeco has agreed to make Supplier Products available to its business customers and Customer has agreed to the Supplier Product license and terms and conditions. Such Supplier Product providers are independent entities. Under no circumstances shall either Cogeco or the Supplier Product providers have the right to act or make any commitment of any kind to Customer on behalf of the other or to represent the other in any way as an agent or partner.
3. Installation and Upgrades. Customer acknowledges that use, installation, upgrade and update of the Supplier Product is under the control of Supplier Product providers and thus governed by their respective licenses and terms and conditions. Customer acknowledges that Cogeco does not install or cause to be installed software without Customer’s authorization.
4. Supplier Product Modifications. Supplier Product providers may modify Supplier Products or release a new version thereof at any time, without Cogeco’s control and for any reason including, but not limited to, addressing Customer needs, addressing competitive demands, complying with regulations, orders, or law, or advancing innovation. Supplier Product providers therefore reserve their right to add new features or functionalities to, or remove existing features or functionalities from, a Supplier Product or discontinue the maintenance and support for certain Supplier Product versions. Customer will indemnify, defend, and hold Cogeco harmless from and against all liabilities, damages, and costs arising from such modifications to Supplier Products.
5. Limited Liability. Cogeco makes no warranties nor imposes conditions as to items distributed under a third party name, copyright, trademark or trade name that may be offered or incorporated with Supplier Products. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Cogeco will have no liability, in any form whatsoever, in connection with Supplier Products.
